

I can't believe you would try to tell me a paying customer what I should listen to. The wheather and traffic is so important to me that when I travel I can have a good idea what is happening in those city I'm traveling though if there is problems. I just think the NAB is not using common sense. I don't travel alot in the air since 911 so please don't let them take this luxury away from me.